

Keen Kindness

Passing down good energy to people is exhausting of resources, someone who is kind to everyone has a large burden, when you do a kind favor for a despicable person, and they continue to pass down negative energy by harnessing others positive energy is the very evolution of chaos.

Finding the right people to be kind to is keen in passing down as much positive influence possible. Being judgmental is the wrong way to go about this, an aura analysis with heightened senses that'll warn you if the person you are charismatically engaged with is putting off negative electro-magnetic vibrations. A shift in universal laws of attraction is all you must look for, rather than just focusing consciously on their body language, subconsciously take in their body, mind and unique frequency, a calm frequency will keep you calm, an agitated frequency does not entirely mean its reflecting around you as its target, use the force of potent positive energy to engage with them on their level and chisel away the tension.

Negative energy is hard to pick up on if you are in a negative state of mind, you'll feel more welcomed to it and pass you by of their negative intentions.

The same rule goes for positive energy, Accept one crucial key, Positive multiples upwards with other positive elements. Negative multiplied by negative depletes energy reserves.

Positive engaged by Negative is drained of chi,

Negative engaged by Positive works like a dry sponge on a wet surface, it'll greedily sap the energy out of you, whether mental physical possessions.

Slight negative pulses does not mean the person is corrupt, targeting you or desperate.

However their subconscious will begin to cling and draw energy from you that'll only enable their acceptance to negative realms.
